RE: Voluntary Actions and Muted Actions Against Companies under Proprietorship

Dear Sirs,

I am writing in the capacity of a sole director and majority shareholder, both of 09455568 and of 10395530 as companies registered on the registrar of companies in England. My company's SAIL address is above. It has come to my attention in the first instance of its kind that 09455568 has had to experience. A fully-fledged strike-off I put in myself has been rejected because a third-party individual or organisation intervened to end the strike-off. May I ask who this third-party was and why this was the case? Also, I have today been informed by an online source that company no. 10395530 has had the same action applied to it (strike-off) for reasons regarding lack of monies paid for late-filing penalties and for a missed deadline or filing. Am I correct here? How true is this for Companies House in general?

Warm Regards,

Alfred Anate Mayaki (Student)
